3. The petitioner and the defacto complainant were sent for mediation. The mediation report was received to the effect that the parties were not able to reach any settlement. The matter was listed for hearing on 23.01.2025 and this Court passed the following order:-

“When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that, petitioner is even now willing to marry the defacto complainant. It is submitted that family members of the defacto complainant were not allowing the defacto complainant to marry the petitioner.

2. In view of the above, the respondent police is directed to bring the defacto complainant to the court during the next date of hearing. Petitioner shall also be present before this Court.

3. Post the matter on 30.01.2025.”

4. When the matter was taken up for hearing today, the petitioner and the defacto complainant were present along with her mother. The defacto complainant stated that she is willing to marry the petitioner and the mother of the defacto complainant also agreed that she will get her daughter married to the petitioner. The petitioner also stated that he is willing to marry the defacto complainant.
