CRL MP(MD)No.13953 of 2024

Side), the first ground that was raised by the petitioner is not sustainable. . The second ground is that the 2nd respondent/accused did not mention the relevant provisions in the anticipatory bail petition.

5. In the considered view of this case, this Court had taken into consideration the entire facts of the case and also heard the learned learned counsel who appeared for the intervenor and had granted anticipatory bail and the mere non mentioning the provision will not result in cancellation of anticipatory bail.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is dismissed.
