Madurai and a case in Cr.No.7 of 2022 was registered. After transferring the case from District Crime Branch to Economic Offences Wing, Madurai some persons have been inducted as accused and some of them got anticipatory bail and some of them were arrested and got regular bail, but there is no change happening in the matter of investigation. More than 2000 investors have invested in the Company, around 300 persons were working for that company and the amount involved in this case is around 200-300 crores. Already, the petitioner has no hope over the Economic Offences Wing, Madurai, since three years period have lapsed and there is no significant progress in the investigation. Hence, prays to transfer the investigation in this case from the file of Economic Offences Wing, Madurai to the file of first respondent.

3.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that based on the complaint of the defacto complainant, the respondent police has registered a case in Cr.No.7 of 2022 and investigation in this case is under progress. Crl.O.P(MD) No.22622 of 2024 dated 28.04.2022, the case was registered by Economic Offences Wing, Madurai in Cr.No.7 of 2022. On 23.08.2022, the case was transferred to Sivagangai Economic Offences Wing in Cr.No. 7 of 2022 for the offence under Sections 406, 420, 468, 471, 120(B) IPC r/w Section 5 of TNPID Act, 1997 and as ordered by this Court, the investigation was entrusted to the Deputy Superintendent of Police, Ramanathapuram on 14.10.2022. During the course of investigation, 2950 complaints were received, 82 documents, 12 Immovable documents, 7 motor cars, gold jewels, cash of Rs.1,710/-, 30 electronic devices, 124 account books, 7 rubber stamps, 2 lockers, one Hard Disc and one pen drive were recovered and handed over to the learned Special Judge for TNPID Act Cases, Madurai. 4.Heard the learned counsels appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

5.In this case, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner seeks transfer of the investigation on the ground of pending investigation, without any progress.

6.The main ground raised by the petitioner is that the case is under investigation without any further progress. As far as Economic Offences Wing are concerned, since huge amounts involved in this case and so many complaints are being received by the respondent police, they have to investigate the matter carefully and it needs some time. Merely due to delay in investigation is not a sole ground to transfer the investigation. Apart from that, there is no valid ground raised by the petitioner to transfer the investigation.

7.This Court in an earlier occasion, after considering all the facts, transferred the case from the file of District Crime Branch to Economic Offences Wing, Madurai. Therefore, without any valid and sufficient reasons, investigation cannot be transferred. More over, the present investigation officer is doing investigation in a fair and proper manner and identified some of the properties and taking steps to attach the properties identified by them before the concerned Court. At this stage if the investigation is transferred, it will again cause delay. Therefore, in the interest of public money involved in this case, it is not appropriate to transfer the investigation.

8.In view of the aforesaid discussions, this Court is of the opinion that there is no merits in the petition and the same is deserves to be dismissed.

9.Accordingly, the Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
