This petition has been filed by the petitioners to quash the First Information Report in Crime No.807 of 2023 dated 17.07.2023 on the file of the first respondent police.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the first respondent police has filed a case against the petitioner for the offences under Section 20(b)(ii)(A) of NDPS Act, 1985, in Cr.No.807 of 2023. In fact, the petitioner was arrayed as A2 and even as per the contents of the First Information Report, no offence is made out against the petitioner and he was falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, the petitioner filed this case to quash the First Information Report.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the first respondent police would submit that based on a secret information, they intercepted the petitioner and others and found that they had illegally possessed 5 grams kanja and registered the case in Cr.No.807 of 2023 for the offences under Section 20(b)(ii)(A) of NDPS Act, 1985. Thereafter, they conducted investigation and filed Final Report before the concerned Court.

4. This Court has perused the records.

5. This petition has been filed challenging First Information Report registered against the petitioner in Cr.No.807 of 2023 dated 17.07.2023. After registering FIR, the respondents have conducted investigation and filed Final Report.

6. As per the contents of the First Information Report, there are some allegations levelled against the petitioner to constitute offence. Therefore, it is not appropriate to quash the First Information Report and the petitioner is at liberty to challenge the Final Report, if any material available against the petitioner, in the manner known to law.

7. With above said observations, this petition is dismissed.
