ORDER

This Criminal Petition is filed seeking to quash the proceedings in Crime No.18 of 2025 on the file of Thangallapalli Police Station, Rajanna Sircilla District, wherein the petitioner was arrayed as accused No. 2 for the offences punishable under Sections 120-B, 420, 467, 471 and 409 r/w Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short, "IPC").

2. Heard Ms.K.Archana, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri M.Vivekananda Reddy, learned Additional Public Prosecutor, appearing for respondent No.2.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the respondent No.1/de facto complainant, while discharging his official duties as Tahsildar, lodged the complaint against the petitioner by making false allegations. The petitioner has not created or forged any document. The nature of the allegations made in the complaint is purely civil in nature. The ingredients of the offences under Sections 409 and 467 of the IPC do not attract against the petitioner. The other offences levelled against the petitioner are punishable with imprisonment of less than seven years. The police registered the crime only with an intention to harass the petitioner at the instance of local political party pressure.

4. He further submitted that based on similar complaints lodged by respondent No.1, Crime No.79 of 2021 was registered for the very same offences against the petitioner, who was arrayed as accused No.2 in the said crime. The petitioner approached this Court by filing Crl.P. No.3017 of 2025, and this Court, by order dated 01.05.2025, disposed of the said Criminal Petition directing the Investigating Officer to proceed with the investigation and not to take any coercive steps against the petitioner. In the present case also, very same allegations are levelled against the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner is entitled to the very same relief which was granted by this Court in CrI P. No.3017 of 2025.

5. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor has not disputed the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

6. Taking into consideration the above submissions, without expressing any view on the merits of the case, the Investigating Officer is directed to conclude the investigation in Crime No.18 of 2025. The petitioner shall cooperate with the investigation and produce the documents which are in his possession. The Investigating Officer is further directed not to take any coercive steps against the petitioner.

7. With the above directions, the Criminal Petition is disposed of.

Pending miscellaneous applications, if any, shall stand closed.
