2. The case of prosecution in brief is that on 05-02-2025, the de facto complainant reported to the police that A1 and A2, posing as representatives of the fictitious NAPS company, falsely promised a tractor under the PM KISAN YOJANA Scheme with a 40% subsidy. Believing them, the complainant paid Rs.6,10,000/- for a John Deere 5042 tractor worth Rs.8,50,000/- which was delivered on 06-09-2024. In December 2024, L&T Finance approached the complainant for loan installments, revealing that NAPS was a fraudulent company and no such subsidy existed and Rs.6,10,000/- paid, Rs.1,82,000/- was used as down payment and ₹4,27,700 was misappropriated by A1 and A2. A1 to A3 also fabricated documents to falsely show that the complainant had taken a loan. Basing on the said complaint, Crime No.23 of 2025 was registered.

3. Heard Mr.P.Prabhakar Reddy, learned counsel for the petitioner, and Mr. Syed Yasar Mamoon, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent State.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he did not commit the alleged offence and he was falsely implicated in this crime. He further submitted that initially the crime was registered for the offences under Sections 316(2) and 318(4) r/w 3(5) of the BNS and the punishment prescribed for the said offences is below seven years. However, with an intention to harass the petitioner, the police included Section 111(2) of the BNS, though the ingredients of Section 111(2) of the BNS are not attracted against the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner was arrested on 17.02.2025 and since then he has been in judicial custody. He further submitted that the material part of the investigation is completed, except filing of charge sheet and the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and also abide by the conditions, which are going to be imposed by this Court, and hence, prayed for grant of bail.

5. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the bail petition and submitted that the petitioner has committed a grave offence and the investigation is not yet completed. Therefore, the petitioner is not entitled for grant of bail.

6. Having considered the rival submissions made by the respective parties and after perusal of the material available on record, it reveals that the petitioner was arrested on 17.02.2025 and since then he is in judicial custody and material part of the investigation is completed, except filing of charge sheet. Even according to the learned Additional Public Prosecutor, most of the witnesses were already examined.
