The Court made the following: ORDER

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE NAGESH BHEEMAPAKA

WRIT PETITION No. 14137 OF 2024

O R D E R:

Heard learned counsel for both the parties and perused the record.

2. This Writ Petition was heard along with Writ Petition No. 12955 of 2024 which was dismissed by this Court on 10.10.2025, with the following observations:

> " For all these reasons, this Court concludes that Petitioners failed to make out any ground for interference. The Federation's appointment of the Ad-hoc Committee on 15.01.2024, its extension on 13.04.2024, notice dated 01.05.2024 for the Special General Body Meeting and the elections held on 06.06.2024 are all found to be valid and in accordance with law. Petitioners' prayer for a direction to Returning Officer to conduct elections pursuant to the letter dated 08.01.2024 is infructuous and unsustainable in view of the speaking order dated 05.06.2024 and completion of the election process".

3. In this Writ Petition, the relief sought is to direct Sri P.Vijender (Retd.) District & Sessions Judge or appoint any Retired Judge to conduct elections to the 2nd respondent Association forthwith. Since elections were already conducted and concluded on 06.06.2024, for the reasons stated in the order dated 10.10.2025 in Writ Petition No. 12955 of 2024, this Writ Petition also deserves to be dismissed.

4. Consequently, miscellaneous Applications, if any shall stand closed.
