

THE HONOURABLE SMT. JUSTICE K. SUJANA

CRIMINAL PETITION No.14430 of 2025

ORDER:

Seeking the Court to enlarge the petitioner-accused No.1 in Crime No.190 of 2025 of Warasiguda Police Station, Hyderabad, on bail, the present petition is filed.

2 . The brief facts of the case are that, on 11.09.2025, the de-facto complainant, who is the wife of the victim, lodged a report with the police stating that at around 08:30 hours on the same day, she was informed by her neighbour that 4–5 unknown persons had arrived in a four-wheeler and forcibly taken her husband away after assaulting him. She further stated that on 25.08.2025, one Dastagiri had come to her workplace and threatened her, stating that her husband owed them a debt of fourteen lakhs, and if he failed to repay it, they would kill him. Based on this, she suspected that Dastagiri, along with others, might have kidnapped her husband and requested the police to take necessary action. Based on the complaint, a case was registered as Crime No.190 of 2025, initially for offences punishable under Section 137 read with Section 3(5) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS). Subsequently, after investigation, the case was altered to Sections 140(2), 127, and 238 read with Section 3(5) of BNS.

3. Heard Sri Soma Ravi Kiran Reddy, learned counsel appearing for Sri Kasireddy Mohan Chandra, learned counsel for the petitioner as well as Sri D. Arun Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent-State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent of the allegations leveled against him and that the petitioner was arrested on 12.09.2025 and has remained in judicial custody since then and a substantial portion of the investigation has already been completed, and there is no evidence to suggest that the petitioner were involved in any act of kidnapping. Therefore, prayed the Court to grant bail to the petitioner by allowing this criminal petition.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, contending that the allegations against the petitioner are grave in nature and that the investigation is still ongoing and therefore, prayed that the Court dismiss the criminal petition.

6. In light of the submissions made by both the learned counsel and upon a perusal of the material available on record, it is evident that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 12.09.2025. The allegation against the petitioner is that he kidnapped LW.2 for the purpose of recovering an amount allegedly given to LW.2. As per the remand case diary, prosecution witnesses LWs.1 to 14 have already been examined. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, including the nature of the allegations, the stage of investigation, and the duration of incarceration, this Court finds it appropriate to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

- i. The petitioner shall execute a personal bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) each, with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of the learned Special Judge for Trial of offences under SCs and STs (POA) Act cum VI Additional Metropolitan Sessions Judge, Secunderabad.
