This criminal petition is filed under Sections 480 & 483 of Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (for short 'BNSS') by the petitioner/A.26 seeking enlargement on bail in connection with Crime No.01 of 2025 of Rachakonda Narcotics Police Station, TG Anti-Narcotics Bureau (TGANB), Rangareddy District. The offences alleged against the petitioner are under Section 8(c) 22(C), 29, 27A and 27(a) of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (for short 'NDPS Act').

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on reliable information that some persons are selling cocaine and Ecstasy Pills to the customers, the police conducted inspection and seized the contraband of 150 grams of Cocaine and 1100 Ecstasy Pills from the possession of accused. Consequently, police registered a case against the accused for the above offences.

3. Heard Smt. D. Priyanka, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri D. Arun Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent-State.

4. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that petitioner herein is A.26. The allegations against him is that he is doing Havala business, is also collecting money from Nigerian drug peddlers who are earning easy and quick money by doing drug business and assisting them by sending that money to the Nigerian accounts by Hawala means with the help of Chetan of Mumbai. As such, he was arrayed as A.26. He further contended that petitioner is innocent of the said allegations and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The petitioner is in jail from 05.09.2025. Hence, requested this Court to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. On the other hand, learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed bail stating that the allegations against this petitioner are serious in nature, investigation is not yet completed and some of the accused are not yet arrested. At this stage, petitioner is not entitled for bail and prayed to dismiss this petition.

6. In the light of the submissions made by both the learned counsel and a perusal of the material available on record, it appears that the petitioner is in judicial remand since 05.09.2025. As seen from the record, the material part of the investigation has been completed and LWs.1 to 75 witnesses have been examined and no charge sheet is filed since 90 days. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the incarceration period of the petitioner, this Court deems it fit to grant bail to the petitioner/A-26, subject to the following conditions:
