AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. These cases involve similar issues and therefore, are being disposed of together by this common order.
2. The petitioners, who were working on daily wage basis for the last 12 years, are entitled for regularisation, which is pending consideration. Learned counsel pray that a direction be given to the respondents to consider their cases, in terms of the judgment passed by Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Jaggo vs. Union of India and Others in Civil Appeal No.14831 of 2024, decided on 20.12.2024 and be not replaced by another set of employees.
3. The aforesaid facts having been brought out, during the course of hearing, learned State counsel on instructions from Kuldeep Kaur, Superintendent states that the respondents would not be averse to considering the case, taking note of the afore-referred judgment within a period of 6 months, which satisfies the learned counsel for the petitioners.

4. The matter stands disposed of accordingly and if the petitioners are found entitled, grant the benefit forthwith. Needless to say, if the orders are adverse to their interest, the same may be passed after granting opportunity of hearing to them and shall contain reason, whereupon the petitioners shall be free to seek legal redress thereupon.

5. Interim order dated 14.01.2020 will continue, till the decision is taken.

6. A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of connected case.
