

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARHFAO-1562-2002 (O&M)
Date of decision: 10.12.2025

R.P.S. Bedi

...Appellant

Versus

The Union of India and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK GUPTA

Present: None for the appellant.

Mr. Maheshinder Singh Sidhu, Sr. Panel Counsel for Union of India.

DEEPAK GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

There is no representation on behalf of the appellant. It is despite the fact that counsel for the appellant has been duly informed through email, as reported by the Registry. On the previous date of hearing, nobody had appeared for the appellant. It appears that appellant is no longer interested in pursuing the appeal.

Notice was also sent to the appellant, which is received with the report that he is no longer residing at the given address and that he has shifted to Mohali, Punjab at some unknown place. No fresh address of the appellant was ever brought to the notice of this Court, as such, this Court is unable to send any fresh notice to him.

In the aforesaid circumstances, dismissed in default for want of prosecution.
