5. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner was not initially named in the FIR nor there is any averment in the FIR which even remotely connects him with the commission of the crime. However, during the course of investigation, the supplementary statement of the complainant was recorded and the petitioner and his other co-accused were nominated as accused in the present case. The petitioner was arrested in the present case on 29.06.2024 and is in custody for the last more than 01 year and 01 month. Learned counsel further submits that in the present case Sukhchain Singh co-accused has been granted the concession of bail by the Court of Judicial Magistrate First Class, Samana vide order dated 06th May 2025 (Annexure A-1).

6. On the other hand, learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that there are serious allegations against the petitioner and the petitioner is not entitled for the concession of regular bail.

7. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

8. In the present case, the petitioner is stated to be in custody for the last more than 01 year and 01 month. However, no witness has been examined so far and the conclusion of the trial may take quite a long time. Apart from that, the co-accused Sukhchain Singh has already been granted the concession of bail by the Court of

Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Samana vide order dated 06th May 2025
(Annexure A-1).

9. In view of the above, without commenting any further on the merits, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate/CJM concerned.
