.....Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS BAHL

Present:- Mr. V.M. Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioner/tenant.

None for the respondent/landlord.

VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

1. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner/tenant, on instructions from the petitioner/tenant, who is present in person in the Court, has fairly stated that since the petitioner has handed over the possession, thus, he seeks to withdraw present revision petition. It is submitted that the petitioner has deposited the mesne profit before the Rent Controller and has no objection in case the said mesne profit is paid to the respondent/landlord.

2. In view of the above fair stand taken by the learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions from the petitioner, the petitioner is permitted to withdraw the present revision petition.

3. It would be open to the respondent-landlord to move an appropriate application for release of the mesne profit which has been deposited by the petitioner.
