Vs.

STATE OF PUNJAB

....Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK GUPTA

Present:- Mr.Rajat, Advocate, for
Mr.S.P.S. Sidhu, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. R.K. Takkar, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

DEEPAK GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

Appellant was tried by Ld. Special Court, Muktsar in a case arising out of FIR No.285 dated 20.11.2005 under Section 15 of the NDPS Act registered at Police Station City Muktsar, as he was found in possession of 10 Kg of poppy husk. After trial, the appellant was convicted under Section 15 of the NDPS Act vide judgment dated 30.07.2009 by the trial Court and was sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of one year and to pay fine of ₹10,000/- with default sentence of three months rigorous imprisonment in case of non-payment of fine.

2. Against the abovesaid conviction and sentence, this appeal was filed.

3. Today learned counsel for the appellant stated at the outset that appellant does not press the appeal against the judgment of conviction; and that appellant confines his prayer only against order of sentence. It is submitted that appellant would be satisfied, in case he is sentenced to imprisonment for the period already undergone by him.

4. Learned counsel points out that offence pertains to the year

2005; that appellant was young person of 21 years at that time; that appellant has already undergone actual sentence of 04 months and 13 days and so, he deserves to be sentenced for the period already undergone by him.

5. Learned State counsel has not seriously objected to the aforesaid prayer.

6. The custody certificate placed on record by the respondent-State would reveal that appellant has already undergone actual custody sentence of 04 months and 13 days. He was young boy of 21 years of age at the time of offence, which had taken place way back in 2005 i.e. 20 years back.

7. In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, it will be in the interest of justice, if the period of imprisonment is reduced to the period already undergone by the appellant, instead of sending him behind bars in the company of hardened criminals.

8. Consequently, the present appeal is partly accepted. By maintaining the impugned judgment against conviction, the order of sentence as passed by the trial Court is modified and the appellant is sentenced to imprisonment for the period already undergone by him. As far as fine is concerned, it will remain the same.
