Mr. Vikas Mohan Gupta, Advocate
for respondent No.4-Insurance Company.

PANKAJ JAIN, J. (Oral)

1. Claimant is in appeal seeking enhancement of compensation on account of the injuries suffered by him in a motor vehicular accident dated 08.10.2019.

2. Admittedly, there is no major injury suffered by the appellant. However, it has been claimed that he remained hospitalized for 02 days. The Tribunal observed as under:-

“xx xx xx

Admittedly he remained in Civil Hospital, Sangrur for two days. In the absence of medical bills, only some guess work can be done. Keeping in view the period of treatment, he can easily be granted 2,000/- on account of special diet and 2000/- on account of medicines which might have been purchased by the claimant during his treatment in Civil Hospital, Sangrur. Claimant must have remained under pain and suffering due to the injuries received in the accident and considering the period of treatment, claimant can safely be granted ₹10,000/- on this account. He can also be granted compensation of ₹2,000/-on account of attendant during the hospitality. In all, amount of compensation comes out to be 16,000/-. Claimant is also entitled to interest @7% % per annum from the filing of claim petition till the realization of the claim amount. Accordingly, issue no.2 is decided in favour of the claimant and against the respondents.”

- 3. Keeping in view that the hospitalization of the appellant is not in dispute, he is awarded Rs.5,000/- for transportation, Rs.10,000/- for special diet and Rs.10,000/- for attendant charges.
- 4. Accordingly, the amount of Rs.16,000/- awarded by the Tribunal is enhanced to Rs.41,000/-.
- 5. Disposed off, accordingly.
- 6. Since the main case has been decided, pending miscellaneous application, if any, shall also stands disposed off.
