CRM-M-7487-2025

Decided on : 14.02.2025

Gurjeet Kaur

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJAY VASHISTH

PRESENT: Mr. Deepak Goyal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Jasdeep Singh, DAG, Punjab.

SANJAY VASHISTH, J. (Oral)

1. The instant petition has been filed under Section 483 of BNSS, 2023, for grant of regular bail to the petitioner, who has been booked for having committed the offences punishable under Sections 419, 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC, in FIR No. 357, dated 05.12.2023, registered at Police Station City Kharar, District SAS Nagar, during the pendency of trial.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner being a woman, is falsely implicated in the present case. Counsel also submits that co-accused namely; Gurdeep Singh Sandhu, Parwinder @ Parwinder Singh, Rajinder Singh have been granted the concession of regular bail and co-accused namely Inderjit Singh has been granted the concession of anticipatory bail by the co-ordinate Benches of this Court, details of which are mentioned in paragraph No.4 of the petition and appended as Annexures P-3 to P-7).

3. Counsel also argued that co-accused namely; Gurdeep Singh

Sandhu, is the main beneficiary of the deal, who has already been granted regular bail by the co-ordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 20.08.2024(P-3). Counsel submits that petitioner being on better footing, also prays for release on regular bail.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel while opposing the prayer of the petitioner submits that the complainant has been defrauded and forged sale deed has been executed and looking at the allegations levelled against her as well as the fact that apart present case, she is involved in four other cases, she does not deserve any sympathy, hence, prays for dismissal of the present petition.

5. After hearing learned counsel for the parties and going through the present petition as well as the documents appended thereto and the fact that the offences are triable by the Court of learned Magistrate. The investigation is already complete and final report has also been submitted. Petitioner, who allegedly involved in four other cases cannot be kept behind bars, merely on the basis of the allegations levelled until same are proved beyond the shadow of reasonable doubt by holding her guilty .

6. Therefore, this Court allows the prayer of bail made in the present petition.

7. Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in this case, subject to her furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court/ Chief Judicial Magistrate/ Illaqa Magistrate/ Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case.

8. The observation made here-in-above shall not be construed as an expression on the merits of the case and the Trial Court shall decide the case
