HARPREET SINGH BRAR, J. (ORAL)

1. Present criminal writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India seeking issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the official respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner from the hands of respondent No.6 and to issue 07 days prior notice, in case she is required in any case.
2. Learned State counsel, at the very outset, on instructions from ASI Raj Kumar, submits that the complaint received against the petitioner has been looked into and no substance has been found in the allegations made by respondent No.6. It was concluded that it is a civil dispute between the parties.

As such, no cause of action remains for the petitioner to approach this Court.

3. In view of the above statement made by learned State counsel, instant criminal writ petition is disposed of.
