1. Learned counsel, who had filed this petition, has since been elevated to the Bench.
2. The State counsel points out that on account of subsequent developments with the passage of time, no cause survives in the present petition.
3. Consequent upon the fact that this petition has remained pending for a considerable period, and despite the passage of sufficient time, no one has appeared on behalf of the petitioner, the petition appears to have lost its efficacy.
4. Be that as it may, none appears on behalf of the petitioner to pursue the present petition. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed for want of prosecution.
