... Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.S. GREWAL.

Present: Mr. Raman Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Ms. G.K. Mann, Sr. Advocate (through video conference) with Mr. Anmol Jeevan and Ms. Shruti, Advocates (Present in Court) for the respondent(s).

H.S. GREWAL, J. (ORAL)

By virtue of this common order, all the abovementioned petitions shall be disposed of since the issue involved therein is similar.

2. By way of filing the instant petitions, the petitioner has sought quashing of order dated 16.02.2023, whereby the bail bonds furnished by the petitioner have been cancelled by the trial Court and the exemption from personal appearance, already granted to her, has also been withdrawn/set aside on account of her non-appearance on an effective date of hearing before the trial Court.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to appear before the trial Court and join the proceedings. She thus prays that the petitioner may be permitted to surrender before the learned trial

Court to attend the trial proceedings regularly and, therefore, requests that the impugned order may be set aside.

4. On the other hand, learned senior counsel appearing on behalf of he respondent(s) prays for dismissal of the instant petitions.

5 I have heard the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and gone through the case file.

6. In view of the limited prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, this Court does not find any legitimate ground to interfere with the impugned order dated 16.02.2023. However, in case the petitioner surrenders before the trial Court on or before 17.12.2025 at 10.00 A.M. and moves an application for grant of regular bail, the trial Court shall consider and decide the same on the same day itself. Further, if the petitioner files fresh application seeking permanent exemption from personal appearance, the same shall be considered sympathetically.

7. Petitions stand disposed of.
