has been impugned, the remaining information as sought has also been provided free of costs.

3. There is no replication to the said written statement on behalf of petitioner.

4. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record with their able assistance.

5. Once, the respondents are on record to submit that all the information required asked for and was available with the respondents have already been furnished and the discrepancies pointed out in the information supplied, has also been cleared, no further order are required to be passed as the petitioner has not disputed the averments made in the written statement by filing any replication.

6. In case, any information sought under the RTI, has not been furnished to the petitioner, all the efforts be made by the authorities concerned to furnish the same by a written letter within a period of 08 weeks from the receipt of the copy of this order.

7. Keeping in view the above, no ground is made out to pass any further order in the facts and circumstances of the present case, the same is disposed of accordingly.
