For the good and valid reasons assigned in the application, which is duly supported by an affidavit, the same is allowed. Consequently, compromise deed dated 21.07.2025 (Annexure A-1) is taken on record.

Main case

The petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, for quashing of the order dated 12.10.2023 (Annexure P-5), vide which, the learned Appellate Authority, exercising powers under Section 16 of the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, has set aside the order dated 24.05.2022 (Annexure P-4), passed by the learned Maintenance Tribunal.

During the pendency of the instant petition, a compromise has been effected between the parties, which has already been taken on record as Annexure A-1.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in view of the compromise, the petitioner does not intend to pursue the instant writ petition, and the same may be disposed of. However, the impugned order dated 12.10.2023 (Annexure P-5) be set aside.

Learned counsel for respondent No.3 also admits the factum of compromise, and submits that he has no objection in case, the impugned order is set aside. However, he submits that assurance extended by the petitioner and his father before this Court, vide order dated 01.03.2024, that they are ready to keep respondent No.3 and his wife in their house, shall also be made part of the compromise.

Learned counsel for the petitioner does not oppose the abovesaid prayer made by learned counsel for the respondent No.3.

In view of the abovesaid position, the instant writ petition is disposed of, with the following directions:-

- 1) The impugned order dated 12.10.2023 (Annexure P-5) is hereby set aside;
- 2) The parties shall strictly adhere to the terms and conditions, as enumerated in the compromise (Annexure A-1); and
- 3) The petitioner and his father shall keep respondent No.3 and his wife in their house and shall also look after them, as undertaken by them, vide order dated 01.03.2024.
