December 13,1994"

3. None has appeared on behalf of the respondent.
4. Learned counsel for the appellant has submitted that in the present case, no one on behalf of the respondent has come in the recent past to get enforced the judgment of the Appellate Court and in all probability, he is not interested in further pursuing the matter and hence, he prays that the present appeal may be disposed of as having been rendered infructuous but liberty may be granted to the appellant to revive the appeal, in case, the respondent seeks to enforce the judgment of the first Appellate Court.
