SANJEEV PRAKASH SHARMA, J (ORAL)

1. Challenge in this writ petition is to the order dated 13.01.2025 passed by the learned Single Judge, whereby, the Resolution passed in the meeting dated 20.12.2024 was given no effect.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant vehemently argued and submitted that the order passed by the learned Single Judge deserves to be interfered with as the interim order passed by the learned Single Judge is in the nature of final order and final relief has been granted at the initial stage itself.

3. On further query put to learned counsel for the appellant, it has been revealed that in terms of the interim order passed by the Court, a fresh meeting was held and Resolution for 'No Confidence Motion' has been passed as against the appellant. We find that the order passed by the learned

Single Judge was on 13.01.2025. The present appeal preferred by the appellant is on 04.03.2025 after the Resolution having been passed. Thus, we do not find any reason to interfere with the said order. Moreso, we while sitting in appeal, the appellant cannot be turned up a clock back. However, we only observed that any action taken would of course be subject to the final decision of the writ petition. The appellant would always be free to move an appropriate application before the concerned Single Judge.

4. In view thereto, the order passed by the learned Single Judge does not warrant any interference and accordingly, the instant appeal is dismissed.

5. The pending misc. application, if any, shall stands disposed of accordingly.
