

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-12601-2025

Date of Decision:06.03.2025

Karam Singh

...Petitioner

vs.

Ravinder Singh and Anr.

...Respondents

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice N.S.Shekhawat

Present : Mr. Vishal Sharma, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. M.S. Bajwa, DAG, Punjab.

N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 528 of B.N.S.S with a prayer to quash the impugned order dated 03.02.2025 (Annexure P-5) passed by the Court of Additional Sessions Judge, Hoshiarpur, whereby the bail of the petitioner was cancelled and the bail bonds and surety bonds were ordered to be forfeited to the State and the petitioner was ordered to be summoned through non-bailable warrants of arrest.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that from a bare perusal of the zimni orders Annexure P-4, it is clear that the petitioner was regularly appearing before the Appellate Court and never misused the concession of bail. However, he could not appear before the Appellate Court on 03.02.2025. Due to non-appearance of the petitioner, the Appellate Court had cancelled the bail and the bail bonds and surety bonds were ordered to be forfeited to the State and the petitioner was ordered to be summoned through non-bailable warrants of arrest. Learned counsel for the petitioner next contends that the petitioner is ready to surrender before the Court and shall join the proceedings. He further contends that the petitioner shall appear on each and every date of hearing, before the Appellate Court and shall not absent himself during the Court proceedings.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. M.S. Bajwa, DAG, Punjab, who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondent-State.

5. Learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner had not appeared intentionally before the Appellate Court and there is no illegality in the impugned order dated 03.02.2025 passed by the Court below and the petitioner does not deserve the concession of bail.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

7. It is not in dispute that that the petitioner was on bail earlier and was regularly appearing before the Appellate Court, however, on one date i.e. 03.02.2025, he could not appear before the Appellate Court. Thus, taking a lenient view of the matter, the petitioner is permitted to surrender before the Appellate Court within a period of two weeks from today and on his surrender, he shall be admitted to bail subject to furnishing bail bonds and surety to the satisfaction of the concerned Court.

8. At the time of furnishing of bail bonds, the petitioner shall also file an affidavit before the concerned Court that he shall continue to appear before the Court on each and every date of hearing and shall not absent himself during the Court proceedings, except with prior permission of the Court.

9. The Appellate Court shall also be at liberty to impose any other conditions, as it deems fit in the peculiar facts and circumstances of case.

10. The petition stands allowed in the above terms.
