2002) has been received back with the report that he has been shifted to some unknown place.

3. Notice issued to appellant Balwan Singh (in FAO No. 5288 of 2002) has been received back with the report that he has been duly served.

4. Notice issued to appellant Premo Devi (in FAO No. 5289 of 2002) has been received back with the report that she has been served through her husband.

5. However, no one has appeared on behalf of any of the appellants.

6. These appeals are burnt files, as the original records were destroyed in the fire incident which occurred in the year 2011, and the office has reconstructed the same.

7. The appeals are pending since the year 2002. There would be no useful purpose in keeping the appeals pending any further.

8. Keeping in view the above, the present appeals are dismissed for non-prosecution.

9. However, liberty is granted to the appellants to move an appropriate application for revival of any of the appeals, if so advised.

10. Pending miscellaneous application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
