CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

Mr. Puru Jarewal, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioners through instant petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India are seeking direction to respondents to pay arrears.

2. The petitioners, during 1995-96, joined Punjab Police Force as Special Police Officers ('SPOs'). A number of petitions seeking Constabulary Number came to be filed and this Court directed respondent to consider claim of the petitioners. Many SPOs were ordered to be allotted Constabulary Number. The respondent conducted tests and allotted Constabulary Number to many SPOs. A Division Bench of this Court in Lal Mohammad v. State of Punjab and others, CWP No.7451 of 1996 while disposing of writ petition vide judgment dated 12.12.1996 made it clear that in view of large number of SPOs, no payment of arrears of salary would be made. Accordingly, the respondent assigned Constabulary Number to the petitioners without arrears.

3. There is no representation on behalf of the petitioners. It appears that with the efflux of time, they have lost their interest to pursue the present petition. Even otherwise, there seems no infirmity in the action of respondent.

4. In the backdrop, the petition stands dismissed.

5. The petitioner is at liberty to move an appropriate application within three months from today if cause survives.
