

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

[156]

CWP-8268-2025

Date of Decision: 25.03.2025

HARVINDER SINGH

..... PETITIONER

VERSUS

CHANDIGARH HOUSING BOARD AND OTHERSRESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURESHWAR THAKUR
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS SURI

Present: Mr.Pankaj Katia, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Gagandeep S. Wasu, Senior Standing Counsel for the respondent-CHB.

SURESHWAR THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

1. After having heard the present matter for a considerable duration of time, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks leave to withdraw the present petition, but with liberty to face the proceedings drawn before the competent authority, who has issued the impugned show cause notice(s).
2. The competent authority shall also grant sufficient opportunities of personal hearings to the present petitioner, and, shall also permit the present petitioner to lead all such evidence(s), whereby, the present petitioner can demonstrate that the alleged violations attributed to the present petitioner, are flimsy made attributions.
3. Moreover, in addition, the present petitioner shall also be granted an opportunity to produce such evidence(s) demonstrative that, if there are any violations, as such, on the subject plot(s), thereby, such alleged violations are compoundable.
4. Ordered accordingly.

(SURESHWAR THAKUR)
JUDGE*(VIKAS SURI)
JUDGE*MARCH 25, 2025*ANJAL

Whether speaking/reasoned	:	Yes/No
Whether reportable	:	Yes/No