3. Contention

On behalf of the petitioner

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and no recovery is to be effected from the petitioner. He would submit that no incriminating role is coming forth and as per the FIR, the accused persons had come at the spot in three vehicles and the said vehicles have already been recovered from the co-accused. He further submits that co-accused, namely, Sandeep Singh @ Sandeep Khalsa and Kulvir Singh @ Kullu have been granted regular bail by the trial Court itself vide Annexure P-2.

Notice of motion.

On behalf of the State

On the asking of the Court, Mr. Jaspal Singh Guru, AAG, Punjab accepts notice on behalf of the respondent-State, who does not controvert the aforesaid fact but opposes the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner has actively participated in the crime.

4. Analysis

Be that as it may, considering the fact that the petitioner was empty handed at the spot and no role is attributed to the petitioner and the injury suffered by the complainant is with sharp edged weapon on the head which is attributed to co-accused Amandeep Singh, who is in police custody and the fact that the co-accused namely Sandeep Singh @ Sandeep Khalsa and Kulvir Singh @ Kullu have already been granted the concession of bail by the trial Court vide order dated 10.3.2025 (Annexure P-2); nothing has been recovered from the present petitioner added to the fact that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required at this stage as nothing is to be recovered from him.

5. Relief

In the light of above, the petitioner is directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to her joining investigation with the Investigating Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to his satisfaction for the reason that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required as it would be of no fruitful purpose to put the petitioner behind the bars. The petitioner shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of BNSS, which are reproduced below:-

‘When the High Court or the Court of Session makes a direction under sub-section (1), it may include such conditions in such directions in the light of the facts of the particular case, as it may think fit, including-

(i) a condition that the person shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;

(iii) a condition that the person shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

(iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section.’

However, it is made clear that in case the petitioner does not comply with the aforesaid direction of joining the investigation within a period of one week and comply with the aforesaid condition under Section 482(2) of BNSS, 2023, the order passed by this Court today shall automatically stands cancelled.

In the aforesaid terms, the present petition stands allowed.
