..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE VIKRAM AGGARWAL

Present: Mr. Gurmeet Singh Saini, Advocate for
Mr. S.C. Chhabra, Advocate for the appellants.

Mr. Sukant Gupta, Advocate for the respondents.

VIKRAM AGGARWAL, J. (Oral):

On 16.04.2024, following order was passed by the Lok Adalat.

“On 07.02.2024, notice was issued to the parties. As per office report, appellants No.1, 4, 6 served through affixation as they refused to accept notice whereas the appellants No.2 and 3 are stated to be out of country, appellants No. 5 and 9 are not residing at the given address whereas appellant No. 7 stands served, appellants No. 8 and 10 have since died. However, learned counsel for the appellants state that at this stage, he does not have complete instructions in the matter.

Mr. Sukant Gupta, Advocate circulates his power of attorney on behalf of the respondents which is taken on record.

Considering the huge interrugnum period, we feel that the hostility between the parties must have died down or must have been blunted at this ripe age of the parties. Therefore, we feel that a serious try deserves to be given to settle the matter amicably. Learned counsel for the parties are directed to call the parties so that the finality in the matter is attained.

List on 15.05.2024.”

2. Learned counsel for the appellants submits that despite best efforts, no contact could be established with the appellants as they have not responded to his communications.

3. It appears that the appellants are no longer interested in pursuing the present appeal.

4. That being so, the present appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution. However, liberty is granted to the appellants to move an appropriate application for revival of the appeal, in case, they are interested in pursuing the same. In case, no application for revival of the instant petition is moved within a period of three months, the amount of Rs. 20,000/- deposited, pursuant to order passed by this Court dated 11.04.2002, be released to the respondents along with interest accrued thereon.

Since the main case itself has been decided, pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
