3. Contentions

On behalf of the petitioner

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. As per the allegations, the petitioner along with other nine persons were the purchasers of the Heroin recovered from the co-accused persons namely Manjit Singh @ Mani, Rohit Sethi and Bhavnesh Kumar @ Ashish. He submits that the petitioner was not named in the present FIR but has been implicated in the present FIR on the basis of the disclosure statement of co-accused namely Rohit Sethi. He further submits that co-accused namely Khushal alias Shally, Rohit alias Garry and Ayush alias Anshu against whom the similar allegations were levelled have already been granted concession of anticipatory bail vide orders dated 22.01.2025, 06.02.2025 and 13.02.2025 having registration no. CRM-M-3371-2025, CRM-M-6885-2025 and CRM-M-8107-2025 respectively. (Annexure P-3 to Annexure P-5). He fairly informs the Court though the petitioner was nominated as an accused in total six criminal cases but he has been acquitted in all those cases and he was not involved in any other case under the NDPS Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes that the petitioner is ready and willing to join the investigation and cooperate with the investigating officer.

Notice of motion.

On behalf of the State

Learned State Counsel appearing on advance notice on instructions from Investigating officer vehemently opposes the prayer for grant of concession of anticipatory bail stating that the present petitioner has been nominated by co-accused person Rohit Sethi being purchaser of the alleged contraband i.e. 7 kg. Heroin which is commercial in nature along with Rs. 36,00,000/- drug money, one rifle 315 bore with five live cartridges, two .30 country made pistols with 10 live cartridges.

4. Analysis

Be that as it may, after given a thoughtful consideration to the submissions as made, by the counsel for both the parties particularly to the effect that the petitioner was not named in the present FIR but has been implicated in the present FIR on the basis of the disclosure statement of co-accused namely Rohit Sethi and co-accused named mentioned above have already been granted concession of anticipatory bail by this Court, this Court finds no reason to deny the petitioner the concession of anticipatory bail, wherein the petitioner has bona fide intentions and is willing to join the investigation and cooperate for furtherance of the same so that the final report can be submitted by the Investigating Agency within the stipulated time period.

5. Relief

Hence, in view of the admitted set of circumstances before this Court, the petitioner is hereby directed to be released on anticipatory bail subject to him joining investigation and reporting to the Investigating Officer concerned within a period of one week from today, on furnishing of personal/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Arresting/Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the terms and conditions as envisaged under Section 482(2) of BNSS of which are reproduced below :-

‘When the High Court or the Court of Session makes a direction under sub-section (1), it may include such conditions in such directions in the light of the facts of the particular case, as it may think fit, including-

(i) a condition that the person shall make himself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required;

(ii) a condition that the person shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

(iii) a condition that the person shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

(iv) such other condition as may be imposed under sub-section (3) of section 480, as if the bail were granted under that section.’

However, it is made clear that in case the petitioner does not comply with the aforesaid direction of joining the investigation within one week, the order passed by this Court today shall automatically stand cancelled.

The petition in the aforesaid terms stand allowed.
