

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

248

CRM-M-19038-2025

Date of decision: 23.07.2025

Gurpreet Singh @ Gopi

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARPREET SINGH BRAR

Present: Mr. Sandeep Kumar Passi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Nitesh Sharma, DAG, Punjab.

HARPREET SINGH BRAR J. (Oral)

1. Prayer in this 2nd petition filed under Section 439 of Cr.P.C., is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in FIR No.140 dated 04.12.2023 registered under Sections 22(c) and 29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (in short 'the NDPS Act') at Police Station 'D' Division, District Amritsar. The 1st petition filed by the petitioner seeking the same relief was dismissed as withdrawn on 27.08.2024.

1.1. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that this 2nd petition, seeking regular bail to the petitioner, has been filed with the changed circumstances as the case of the petitioner is squarely covered by the judgment of Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nandlal Mondal @ Abhay Mondal Vs. The State of West Bengal SLP (Crl.) No(s).12788/2023.

2. As per the prosecution, on 13.01.2024, acting on a secret information regarding drug trafficking, a police team headed by ASI Tajpreet Singh set up a barricade near Bhandari Pull, Amritsar, and intercepted an Aactiva scooter bearing registration No.PB-02-DR-5058 carrying Prince Kumar @ Rajan and Baljinder Singh. Upon informing them of their legal rights under Section 50 of the NDPS Act, both accused consented to be searched before a Gazetted Officer. ACP Sarabjit Singh Bajwa arrived at the spot, and in his presence, a search was conducted, leading to the recovery of 14,500 Tramadol (Clovedol 100 SR) tablets from a plastic packet kept near the accused, without any valid license or permit. The tablets were sealed and seized on the spot, and the accused were arrested under Sections 22(c), 29, 61, and 85 of the NDPS Act. A formal FIR was registered.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the petitioner has been falsely implicated and the recovery was effected on the basis of a secret information without the presence of any independent witness, which creates a serious dent on the prosecution's case. There is non-compliance of Sections 42 and 50 of the NDPS Act. The petitioner was merely a pillion rider, and no evidence establishes his conscious possession of the contraband.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is in custody since 13.01.2024 and there are total 34 prosecution witnesses cited in the list of witnesses, out of which, 03

PWs have been examined till date and the trial is likely to take long time in conclusion.

5. Per contra, learned State counsel has filed custody certificate today in the Court which is taken on record and he opposes the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that huge quantity of contraband was recovered in the FIR (supra), which falls within the ambit of commercial quantity and as such, the petitioner is not entitled for any relief, however, he could not controvert the fact that the petitioner is in custody for the last 01 year, 07 months and 07 days.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and after perusing the record of the case, it transpires that the petitioner is behind the bars from the last 01 year, 07 months and 07 days. Investigation is complete. The final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. was presented before the concerned Court. Charges were framed and trial of the case has not made much progress. Out of 34 prosecution witnesses, 03 PWs have been examined so far.

7. A two Judge bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Nandlal Mondal @ Abhay Mondal's case (supra), released the accused on bail after completion of 18 months of custody on account of protracted trial in NDPS case involving commercial quantity of contraband. Reliance in this regard can also be placed upon the judgments rendered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court passed in Md. Aliul Islam @ Aliul Islam @ Alius Vs. The State of West Bengal SLP (Crl.)

*No. 000736/2024, Debrata Mondal Vs. State of West Bengal SLP(Crl.)
No. 14970-2023, Santarul Islam @ Santa Vs. The State of West

8. Further, the culpability, if any, would be determined at the time of trial and as such, no useful purpose will be served by further detention of the petitioner-accused. Keeping the petitioner in further detention without the prospect of the trial being concluded in the near future, would be violative of their rights under Article 21 of the Constitution of India. A two Judge bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Mohd. Muslim @ Hussain vs. State (NCT of Delhi) 2023 AIR SC 1648, has held that the concept of fairness enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India would trump the bar on granting bail in cases involving commercial quantity of contraband, as stipulated by Section 37 of the NDPS Act. Speaking through Justice S. Ravindra Bhat, has opined as follows:

“20. The standard to be considered therefore, is one, where the court would look at the material in a broad manner, and reasonably see whether the accused’s guilt may be proved. The judgments of this court have, therefore, emphasized that the satisfaction which courts are expected to record, i.e., that the accused may not be guilty, is only prima facie, based on a reasonable reading, which does not call for meticulous examination of the materials collected during investigation (as held in Union of India v. Rattan Malik). Grant of bail on ground of undue delay in trial, cannot be said to be fettered by Section 37 of the Act, given the imperative of Section 436A which is applicable to offences under the NDPS Act too (ref. Satender Kumar Antil supra). Having regard to these factors the court is of the opinion that in the facts of this case, the appellant deserves to be enlarged on bail.

21. Before parting, it would be important to reflect that laws which impose stringent conditions for grant of bail, may be necessary in public interest; yet, if trials are not concluded in time, the injustice wrecked on the individual is immeasurable. Jails are overcrowded and their living conditions, more often than not, appalling.” (emphasis added)

9. A two Judge Bench of Hon’ble Supreme Court in “Satender Kumar Antil vs. CBI”, (2022) 10 SCC 51, with respect to prevailing conditions of undertrial prisoner in India has observed:

“6. Jails in India are flooded with undertrial prisoners. The statistics placed before us would indicate that more than 2/3rd of the inmates of the prisons constitute undertrial prisoners. Of this category of prisoners, majority may not even be required to be arrested despite registration of a cognizable offence, being charged with offences punishable for seven years or less. They are not only poor and illiterate but also would include women. Thus, there is a culture of offence being inherited by many of them. As observed by this Court, it certainly exhibits the mindset, a vestige of colonial India, on the part of the investigating agency, notwithstanding the fact arrest is a draconian measure resulting in curtailment of liberty, and thus to be used sparingly. In a democracy, there can never be an impression that it is a police State as both are conceptually opposite to each other.”

10. In view of the above discussions, the present petition is allowed. Accordingly, without commenting upon the merits of the case, the petitioner namely Gurpreet Singh @ Gopi is ordered to be released on regular bail during pendency of the trial, on furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Illaqa Magistrate/Trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

11. Nothing observed hereinabove shall be construed to be expression of an opinion by this Court on merits of the case. The learned Court below is directed to proceed with the matter on its own merits, lest it may prejudice the trial.
