PRESENT: None for the petitioner.

Mr. Kanwarpal Singh, A.P.P. U.T. Chandigarh.

SANJAY VASHISTH, J. (Oral)

1. Prayer in this petition, filed under Section 483 of the BNSS, 2023 seeking regular bail in case FIR No. 73 dated 19.05.2022 under Sections 302, 307 IPC registered at Police Station Sector 39 Chandigarh.

2. On 05.08.2025 , this Court passed the following order:-

“i) Present petition has been filed under Section 483 of BNSS, seeking regular bail in case FIR No.73 dated 19.05.2022, under Sections 302, 307 IPC, registered at Police Station Sector 39 Chandigarh.

ii) In the present case, petitioner is the sole accused. It is alleged that petitioner murdered two individuals by throwing a heavy stone upon them while they were sleeping. Petitioner was apprehended on suspicion, as he was seen near the area of occurrence, as per CCTV footage. Another piece of incriminating evidence relied upon by the prosecution is the recovery of clothes worn by the petitioner, which were allegedly stained with blood matching the blood group of the deceased.

iii) Learned State counsel is directed to file a status report with respect to the incriminating evidence being relied upon by the prosecution.

iv) List on 15.09.2025.”

3. On examining the issue it is noticed that the FIR was got registered by complainant Sunil Kumar. As per the First Information Report (FIR) contents, complainant, Sunil Kumar (age 37), a computer operator at the e-Sampark KIOSK in Sector-38, Chandigarh, reported that on the day of the incident, he arrived at the e-Sampark center around 8:00 AM and found two injured persons lying in a pool of blood in the park opposite the Sector-38D market. Sunil Kumar immediately informed the police via his mobile phone. PCR and an ambulance arrived and transported the two unconscious victims to the hospital. Later, Sunil Kumar learned that one of the injured persons had died in the hospital, and the second person was admitted for treatment. Complainant stated that some unknown person(s) had injured the victims with the intention to kill.

4. Petitioner is the sole accused. It is alleged that petitioner murdered two individuals by throwing a heavy stone upon them while they were sleeping. Petitioner was apprehended on suspicion, as he was seen near the area of occurrence, as per CCTV footage. Another piece of incriminating evidence relied upon by the prosecution is the recovery of clothes worn by the petitioner, which were allegedly stained with blood matching the blood group of the deceased.

5. Since there is no one to assist the Court on behalf of the petitioner. However, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the U.T.Chandigarh submits that all the prosecution witnesses have already been examined, therefore the petition can be disposed of having no force in it.

6. Taking into the note of allegations and the stage of the trial, I do not find any reason to entertain the plea of regular bail at this stage, therefore, the same is dismissed.

7. Any of the discussion done and recorded here above, shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the facts of the case. Therefore, trial Court is expected to decide the case by taking an independent view, on the basis of evidence available on record, as expeditiously as possible, in accordance with law.

8. Misc. application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
