It having been stated on the last date of hearing by learned counsel for the petitioner that he is not in contact with the petitioner despite his best efforts, notice was issued to the petitioner for today which has been received back with the report that the petitioner has since died.

In this view of the matter the writ petition is ordered to be consigned to the record, however liberty is reserved to the LR's, if any, of the petitioner to get it revived, if so advised, by making an appropriate application before the Court.

A copy of this order be sent to learned counsel for the parties as also to the last known address of the petitioner.
