Darbara Singh in the year 26.02.2021 who was working as a sweeper on regular basis in Government Senior Secondary School, Jand Sahib, Faridkot, applied for appointment on compassionate grounds, which was rejected only on account that she was a married daughter of the deceased. This Court in CWP-2218-2017, Amarjit Kaur vs. State of Punjab, decided on 17.01.2020, after taking a holistic view of the object of the policy, declared Clause (c) of Note-I of Scheme for compassionate appointments-2002 as ultra vires of Articles 14 & 15 of the Constitution of India and struck it off, which was upheld by the Division Bench in LPA-462-2021, vide judgment dated 25.01.2023 and has attained finality up to Hon'ble the Supreme Court wherein SLP No.

CWP-12188-2022

3. In view of the above, learned State counsel, being unable to dispute the above, on instructions submits that the respondents would not be averse to have a relook at the matter.

4. Without commenting upon the merits of the case, this petition is hereby disposed of with a direction to the respondents to decide the claim of the petitioner, taking into account the afore-mentioned judgments and the amendment carried out, within a period of six months, which this Court has no reason to believe the authorities would not address in a just, fair and reasonable manner. Needless to say, if the orders are adverse to her interest, the same shall contain reasons and the petitioner shall be free to seek legal redress.
