3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 21.05.2025 from Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Assandh, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“:With respect to the captioned subject, I have the honour to submit that in compliance of order dated 25.04.2025 passed by the Hon'ble High Court in CRM-M-21518-2025, the statements of the petitioner/accused person, namely. Mohit Rana Mohit son of Ranbir Rana and respondents/aggrieved, namely, Ravi son of Sukhbir and Amarjeet son of Anil were recorded in the Court on 12.05.2025.

Both of them made statements to the effect that they have voluntarily and amicably settled the present case. The respondents/aggrieved persons submitted that they have no objection if the present FIR is quashed. The accused person/petitioner requested that in view of the statement given by the aggrieved persons/respondents the present FIR be quashed. The aggrieved persons/respondents and accused person/petitioner submitted that they have given the statements in the Court without any fear, pressure or coercion.

Trial Court has also been directed to submit report with respect to statements of the parties are bonafide and not result of any pressure or coercion etc, in any manner, whether the compromise effected between the parties is genuine and valid, whether all the accused, complainant and injured are party to the compromise and if not, the details/particulars of such person(s), whether any other case is pending against either of the parties or not, if yes, the details thereof, whether any of the persons involved in this case/dispute has been declared a proclaimed offender, whether any of the petitioner(s) is/are previous convict or not. Statement of Investigating Officer has also been recorded in this regard on 17.05.2025, wherein he has submitted that present FIR was registered against one person namely Mohit Rana @ Mohit and neither accused has been declared Proclaimed Offender in the present case nor he is previous coaccused. He further submitted that no other FIR is pending against the accused persons and there is no victim/injured except complainant namely Ravi in the present FIR. The compromise has been effected between the complainant namely Ravi, injured Amarjeet and accused/petitioner Mohir.

In view of the statements given by the aggrieved persons/respondents and accused person/petitioner in the court, it appears that the compromise has been entered into voluntarily and without any pressure or influence from any side between aggrieved persons/respondents and accused person/petitioner.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent Nos.2 and 3 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.678 dated 19.09.2023 under Sections 323, 34, 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Assandh, District Karnal, Haryana and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 30.01.2025 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
