Neha Rani*', filed by the respondent-husband, pending in the Family Court, Panchkula and she seeks transfer of the same to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Pehowa, District Kurukshetra.

From the contents of the application, it is evident that the son born from the wedlock of the parties, who is about 2 years old, is in the care and custody of the applicant, who herself is not having any source of earning. Besides the same, it is evident from the additional affidavit of the applicant, placed on record today itself, that the respondent is facing trial in the Courts at Pehowa, relating to FIR bearing No.188 dated 17.06.2025, under Sections 323, 406, 498-A and 506 IPC, got lodged by the applicant. Besides the same, the respondent is also making appearance in the petition under Section 144 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, which is also pending in the Courts at Pehowa.

In view of the aforesaid fact situation and considering the statement given by the counsel for the respondent; the fact of the applicant having the custody of the minor son and also considering the fact about other cases arising from the matrimonial dispute, already pending in the Courts at Pehowa, the transfer application is allowed and the petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act i.e. HMA/85/2025, titled 'Pankaj Rathour Vs. Neha Rani', filed by the respondent-husband, stands transferred from the Family Court, Panchkula, to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Pehowa, District Kurukshetra.
