Court on its own motion

...Petitioner

Versus

R.S. Sandhu

...Contemner

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS SURI

Present:- Respondent-contemner in person along with Mr. Navjot Singh, Advocate.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI, J. (ORAL)

1. Learned counsel for respondent-R.S. Sandhu submits that sometimes, despite no intention, certain proceedings take places either in emotion or otherwise, which should be kept in mind. Mr. R.S. Sandhu, who is also present in Court, submits that on the said date also, between the Bar and Bench such an incident had happened due to emotions and the same is regretted.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent-contemner submits that once the said incident has been regretted by Mr. R.S. Sandhu, coupled with the fact that no such incident has ever happened in his career before the said incident or thereafter, the present proceeding be closed in view of regret.

3. Keeping in view the totality of the circumstances, as the incident has been regretted by the alleged contemner and the alleged contemner has not only served the Bar but remained as the President of the Bar and no such incident has ever been reported in his career as a lawyer apart from the incident in question, which has also been regretted and took place due to certain miscommunication, the present proceedings are dropped.

4. Criminal contempt is disposed of accordingly. Rule discharged.
