1. The present petition has been filed by the petitioner under Section 482 of BNSS, 2023 with a prayer for grant of anticipatory bail in FIR No.205 dated 21.12.2024 registered under Sections 115(2)/118(1)/190/191(3)/333/351(1)/351(3) of BNS, 2023 at Police Station City Gurdaspur, District Gurdaspur.

2. While granting the concession of interim anticipatory bail by this Court on 28.04.2025, this Court had noticed the following contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioner:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that as per the allegations levelled by the complainant, the petitioner was armed with a datar and gave blow from its reverse side on the back of the complainant. He further caused an injury with the datar from its reverse side on the left wrist of the brother of the complainant. Learned counsel next submits that the injuries, which have been attributed to the present petitioner, have been declared to be simple in nature. Moreover, the injury, which was on the head of brother of the complainant, is attributed to some other co-accused. Learned counsel further submits that it is a case of version and cross-version and no action has been taken by the police on the complaints submitted by the petitioner's side."

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner has reiterated the submissions and further submits that the petitioner has joined the investigation and his custodial interrogation may not be required.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel also submits that the petitioner has joined the investigation and is no longer required for further investigation.

5. In view of the above statement made by learned counsel for the parties, the interim order dated 28.04.2025 is made absolute. The petitioner shall continue to join the investigation, as and when called by the Investigating Officer. The petitioner shall also abide by the conditions as specified under Section 482 (2) of B.N.S.S.
