Date of decision: 21.05.2025

Joginder Singh

...Petitioner

Versus

Arun Bansal

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.S. GREWAL

Present : Mr. Sandeep K. Sharma, Advocate, with
Ms. Saroj Kumari, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Ankush Singla, Advocate, for the respondent.

H.S. GREWAL, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. is for setting aside the order dated 24.09.2015 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Patiala (Annexure P-6) in Criminal Revision No.26 dated 11.04.2014 vide which the revision filed by the petitioner against the order dated 06.01.2014 passed by the learned JMIC Patiala upon complaint No.24/09.03.2009 filed by the petitioner under Section 304 IPC was dismissed.

2. Brief facts of the case are that son of the petitioner namely Devinder Singh had met with an accident and was shifted to the hospital wherein, the accused-respondent was employed as a doctor. Son of the petitioner died on 14.08.2006 in the early hours. The petitioner has alleged that the deceased was not diagnosed properly and even no proper treatment was given to him. Allegations have been made by the complainant that deceased had died on account of gross negligence of the doctor as deceased was not suffering cardiac arrest and head injury.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the record of the case.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner has not been able to point out any negligence made by doctor/respondent and therefore, the complaint of the petitioner was dismissed under Section 203 Cr.P.C. vide order dated 04.01.2014 and thereafter, first appellate Court has also upheld the same.

5. In view of the above, no infirmity has been found in the order of the trial Court and first appellate Court, the present petition is dismissed accordingly.
