

CWP-11748-2024 & connected cases 4

Information Commission and the Information Commission without adjudicating upon the said aspect, has been passing orders which are causing prejudice to the petitioners.

4. Notice of motion was issued and the complainant has not appeared in any of the petition despite being served.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the complainant has not appeared and the operation of the impugned order has already been stayed.

6. In all likelihood, the complainant is not interested in pursuing the present remedy and that is why, he has not appeared, hence, the present writ petitions are disposed of with the observation that the complainant is not interested in pursuing the remedy, no further orders are required to be passed but in case, the complainant files any application before the State Information Commission, Haryana for the implementation of the impugned order, the petitioners will be free to revive the present petitions.

7. A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of other connected cases.

February 05, 2025*harsha(HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI)*JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned : Yes

Whether reportable : No