Malari and she resides there along with her son (petitioner No.2) and other family members. The family of petitioner No.1 is in established possession of the aforesaid land and farm for the last 30 years. Respondent No.4, who is sister of petitioner No.1, already sold her share in the said land to one Ranjit Singh in the year 2020 and now she is trying to usurp share of petitioner No.1. Further, the private respondents, in conspiracy with each other, made several armed attempts to take illegal possession of the share of petitioner No.1. On 02.04.2025, 21.04.2025 and 22.04.2025, the private respondents, armed with deadly weapons, came and attempted to forcibly occupy the land and also threatened to kill. In this regard, petitioner No.1 made complaints to the jurisdictional police authorities, however, no action has been taken till date. Again on 29.04.2025, the private respondents along with larger group of goons and armed with deadly weapons fiercely attacked the petitioners and their family members and managed to plough the land of petitioner No.1 with tractors in illegal and forcible manner. However, due to intervention of neighbours, the petitioners narrowly saved their lives. When no action was taken on the aforesaid complaints (Annexures P-2 & P-3) moved by petitioner No.1, she approached the Superintendent of Police, Sirsa by submitting a complaint dated 29.04.2025 (Annexure P-1), however, the same has not been decided so far.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners further submits that the petitioners would be satisfied, in case a direction is issued to respondent No.2

to consider and decide the complaint/representation dated 29.04.2025 (Annexure P-1) submitted by petitioner No.1 in a time bound manner.

4. Notice of motion to the official respondents only.

5. On asking of the Court, Mr. Ramesh Kumar Ambavta, AAG, Haryana, accepts notice on behalf of respondents No.1 to 3-State. Learned counsel for the petitioners is directed to supply copy of complete paperbook to learned State counsel during course of the day.

6. Keeping in view the prayer made by the petitioners and without commenting anything on the merits of the case, present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to consider and decide the complaint/representation dated 29.04.2025 (Annexure P-1) submitted by petitioner No.1 within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, in accordance with law.
