Date of Decision: 23.12.2025

Darshan Singh and another

...Appellants

Versus

Radhika Devi and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIKAS SURI

Present: Ms. Aneet Kaur, Advocate for
Mr. S.S. Rangi, Advocate, for the appellants.

None for the insurance company.

VIKAS SURI, J. (ORAL)

1. The present appeal has been preferred by the owner and driver of the offending vehicle assailing the award dated 06.01.2006 passed by the learned Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Barnala, whereby, an amount of Rs.4,90,000/- along with 6% interest per annum, has been awarded in favour of the claimant-respondents and recovery rights have been granted in favour of the insurance company.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the appellants states that the appellants have not responded to the written communication sent by her office and thus, she is not in contact with the appellants. Learned counsel pleads no instructions, as such.

3. In the light of the aforesaid, it can safely be presumed that the appellants are not interested to pursue the present appeal.

4. Accordingly, IOIN stands disposed of and with the consent of learned counsel for the appellants, the main appeal is taken on board and the same is dismissed for want of prosecution.

5. The amount deposited by the appellants before the Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Barnala, in deference to order dated 11.05.2006, as modified vide order dated 24.08.2006, be released to the claimants after proper identification.

6. However, liberty is granted to the appellants to seek revival, if any grievance still survives.
