FIR No.	Dated	Police Station	Sections
148	18.09.2024	Sector 39, Chandigarh	420, 467, 468, 471 and 120-B IPC

1. Seeking cancellation of bail granted vide order dated 10.3.2025 by this Court to the respondent-accused in the FIR captioned above, the petitioner-complainant has come up before this Court under Section 480(5) read with Section 483 BNSS, 2023.
2. Counsel for the petitioner-complainant seeks cancellation of the bail on the ground that he had concealed his criminal history from the Court. His next contention is that the matter was compromised between the parties, but the respondent-accused has not adhered to the terms of the compromise.
3. On a query from the Court as to whether any condition of bail mentioned in the final order has been violated, counsel for the petitioner submits that it is not a case of violation of any condition of bail but is a case in which the respondent-accused has been granted bail without considering the fact of concealment of criminal history by the respondent-accused.
4. After hearing the arguments raised on behalf of the petitioner-accused, this Court is of the view that this petition is not worth issuing notice. Even the fact of not mentioning the criminal history would not have led to any different outcome, as this Court has granted bail to the accused on its facts. Moreover, the complainant was represented at the time of hearing, as there was settlement between the accused and the petitioner-complainant at that time, and he failed to point out about criminal history, may be because of settlement. As such, the petitioner has not come to this Court with clean hands.

5. Thus, in the facts and circumstances peculiar to this case, and for the above reasons, no grounds exist to cancel the bail.

6. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
