Versus

STATE OF PUNJAB

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. Pratap Singh Gill, Advocate and
Ms. Eknoor Kaur Gill, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Manipal Singh Atwal, DAG, Punjab.

AMAN CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

1. Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 483 of BNSS, is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.34 dated 19.02.2024, registered at Police Station Beas, District Amritsar, under Section 302 IPC.

2. Learned counsel contends that the petitioner has been in custody for 1 year, 9 months and 8 days. He and the deceased got married about 16 years back and had two children aged about 15 and 11 years, respectively, and there had been no complaint whatsoever with regard to any matrimonial issue. There is nothing to connect him with the alleged incident. Charges were framed on 03.08.2024, however out of 17, 2 PWs, including the eye-witness who has not supported the prosecution version as also the complainant, who has been declared hostile as there were improvements being made by him, have been examined. He is involved in 3 more cases wherein he is on bail. Reliance is placed on the judgment passed by Hon'ble The Supreme Court titled as Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi vs. State of U.P. and others, 2012(2) SCC 382.

3. The custody certificate dated 29.11.2025, filed by the learned State counsel is taken on record. As per the same, the petitioner is behind bars for 1 year, 9 months and 8 days.

4. Learned State counsel opposes the bail on the ground that there are specific allegations against the petitioner of having caused injuries and pushed his wife from the terrace. However, he is unable to controvert the submissions with regard to stage of the case and the petitioner being on bail in other cases.

5. Heard.

6. Hon'ble The Supreme Court in the case of Maulana Mohd. Amir Rashadi (Supra) had held that, "As observed by the High Court, merely on the basis of criminal antecedents, the claim of the second respondent cannot be rejected. In other words, it is the duty of the Court to find out the role of the accused in the case in which he has been charged and other circumstances such as possibility of fleeing away from the jurisdiction of the Court, etc." Reiterating in Prabhakar Tewari vs. State of UP and another, (2020) 11 SCC 648, it was observed that, "The offence alleged no doubt is grave and serious and there are several criminal cases pending against the accused. These factors by themselves cannot be the basis for refusal of prayer for bail.”

7. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, in particular that the petitioner is in custody for the last 1 year, 9 months and 8 days; on bail in other cases; 2 out of 11 PWs have been examined; the trial is likely to take a considerable time, further incarceration of the petitioner would be violative of his right enshrined under Article 21 of the Constitution of India, the present petition is allowed.

8. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail, subject to furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, if not required in any other case and shall abide by the following conditions:-
