(Employees Union).

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

1. By this common order, three writ petitions, the details of which have been given in the heading, are being disposed of as all these petitions involve the same question of law on similar facts.

CWP-20206-2010 & connected cases 2

2. Learned counsel for the parties have agreed that keeping in view the interim order passed, money admissible to the respondent-workmen will be released to them, which amount has already been deposited by the petitioner-Company before the Court.

3. Learned senior counsel for the petitioner-Company submits that keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case where the petitioner-Company has already been closed, facing of prosecution by the petitioner-Company at this stage when the Company is closed will cause prejudice and harassment especially when the parties have agreed to execute the impugned order qua the payment to its employees.

4. Keeping in view the totality of the circumstances especially when the petitioner-Company has already been closed, no further purpose will be achieved in prosecuting the said Company as of now as per the direction given by the respondent No.4. The interest of the workmen is of a paramount nature and the petitioner(s) have already agreed to comply with the direction given with regard to the payment of the workmen under the impugned order dated 31.08.2018 (Annexure P-17).

5. Let the respondent-workmen be given their dues under and as per the impugned order dated 31.08.2010 (Annexure P-17) and the amount wherever deposited may be withdrawn by the workmen by filing appropriate application.

6. Keeping in view the facts and circumstances and an agreement between the parties, direction given to prosecute the petitioner(s) is set aside.

7. The present writ petitions are disposed of in above terms.
