complainant/respondent No.2-Pargat Singh with an intention to kill him.

4. Contends that petitioner is in custody since 19.03.2025. Also contends that present case is version and cross-version and matter has been amicably settled between the parties i.e petitioner as well as de facto complainant-Pargat Singh at their own level. Lastly contends that no useful purpose would be served by prolonging the incarceration of petitioner.

5. Learned counsel for de facto complainant acknowledges the factum of compromise; submits that he has no objection in case present petition is allowed and petitioner is enlarged on bail.

6. Per contra, learned State counsel vehemently opposed the prayer while submitting that allegations against the petitioner are serious in nature; thus, he does not deserve the concession of bail pending trial at this stage.

7. Heard both sides and perused the paper-book.

8. Concededly, it is a case of version and cross-version. Petitioner is in custody since 19.03.2025. Matter has been amicably settled between the parties i.e petitioner as well as de facto complainant-Pargat Singh at their own level. Moreover, State has not raised any objection that in case, petitioner is released on bail, he shall influence the witnesses or hamper the course of trial in any manner; thus, further incarceration of the petitioner would not serve any purpose.

9. Consequently, present petition is allowed; petitioner shall be admitted to bail on furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate concerned.

10. Petitioner shall appear on each & every date of hearing and fully co-operate with the learned trial Court without seeking any unnecessary adjournment(s).
