SHEEL NAGU, C.J. (Oral)

CM-4427-LPA-2025

The instant application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been filed for preponement of the main case i.e. LPA-1614-2025 from 07.08.2025 to some early date.

2. Heard.

3. Keeping in view the averments made in the application, the same is allowed and LPA-1614-2025 is ordered to be taken on Board today itself.

4. Disposed of.

MAIN CASE

The present LPA assails an interlocutory order by which a prayer for interim relief in CWP-755-2025 made by the petitioner/appellant was declined.

2. The reason assigned by the learned Single Judge, while denying the interim prayer, is the late approach of the appellant to the Court.

3. The reason assigned by the learned Single Judge cannot be held to be unlawful or suffering from any illegality. Writ/Supervisory jurisdiction under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India is discretionary and thus can be refused to be exercised on several grounds including that of delay and laches (Please see: Chairman, State Bank of India and Another versus M.J. James, 2022 (2) SCC 301; Navdeep Singh and another versus State of Punjab, CWP No.26988 of 2017 (O&M) dated 06.03.2025 (Punjab and Haryana High Court).

4. Moreso since the issue in CWP-755-2025 is yet to be finally decided, this Court has no manner of doubt that whatever execution is taking place pursuant to the impugned award of the Permanent Lok Adalat will always remain subject to the outcome in CWP-755-2025.

5. LPA stands disposed of with no comments on merits and by upholding the impugned orders of the learned Single Judge.
