1. Learned counsel for the appellant contends that appellant has died and he contacted the son-in-law of the appellant, who stated that all the legal representatives/daughters are married at different places so it will be difficult for them to pursue the present appeal.
2. He therefore, does not want to press the present appeal.
3. Dismissed as not pressed.
4. Liberty is however granted to the legal representatives of the appellant to move an application if in case any cause of action still survives and they are ready to pursue the matter.
