1. The learned counsel for the petitioners fairly submits that, a misconceived motion was filed before the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, whereas, the impugned order(s) drawn by the District Disputes Redressal Forum and State Disputes Redressal Commission ought to have been challenged by filing second appeal, as provided by Section 51 of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. Therefore, he seeks leave to withdraw the present writ petition, however, with liberty to approach the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission by instituting an apt motion under the apt provisions of law.

2. Leave granted.

of delay, before the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission within 30 days from today, the latter shall consider the delay application sympathetically, especially considering the fact that, firstly a misconceived motion was instituted by petitioners and then they approached this Court for agitating their claim.
