

131 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA
AT CHANDIGARH

CR-3722-2024 (O&M)

Date of decision : 24.04.2025

Shilpa

...Petitioner

Vs.

Saurabh Gahlawat

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Akinchan Aggarwal, Advocate
Mr. Aniket Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vinod Bhardwaj, Advocate for the respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner herein is respondent's wife. On account of marital discord between the parties, the dispute is pending in the Court. By impugned order dated 09.05.2024, the Family Court has permitted the father's right to visit the child on every Saturday of every month, which is impugned in the present revision petition.

2. Learned counsel representing the petitioner submits that father has failed to pay the maintenance fixed by the Court and he is an alcoholic. He refers to the respondent's admission in De-addiction Centre.

3. Per contra, learned counsel representing the respondent submits that the amount of maintenance fixed by the Court is being regularly paid and the respondent was admitted in De-addiction Centre in the year 2016. Now, the respondent has improved.

4. This Court has considered the submissions made by the learned counsel representing the parties.
5. This Court in the present case is examining the correctness of order dated 09.05.2024. It is evident that the respondent has been granted visitation rights keeping in view the fact that the respondent is the father of the child. Moreover, the objection with regard to the failure to pay maintenance and the respondent being alcoholic was never pressed before the Family Court as would be evident from the impugned order.
6. Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, no ground to interfere is made out.
7. Hence, the revision petition is dismissed.
8. All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
